THE REALITY

Driven by poverty, conflict, persecution – and the global demand for cheap goods, labour and sex – modern slavery and human trafficking are thriving worldwide. Yes, even in your own community.

Victims often can't ask for help. They rely on others – on you – to notice the signs and speak out.

SIGNS TO WATCH OUT FOR

- Someone else speaks for them or pays for their travel
- They don't know their own address
- Frightened, malnourished, dishevelled or have untreated injuries

- Not free to come and go as they please
- Controlled by someone else
- Same clothes every day, unsuitable for work or unsafe
- Few or no personal belongings
- Dropped off or picked up at unusual times

If something doesn't feel right, it probably isn't.

SEE IT. SAY IT. STOP IT.
